On July 12, 2015, the third casting for the thriller feature film "Hanging Millstone" was held in SW Florida. Mid-way during the casting, NBC2 News arrived for multiple interviews with cast and crew. Those in attendance represented Fort Myers and surrounding areas.

The film's director, Curtis Collins, has a background that includes writing and film making, plus he is a dedicated husband and father of four. Collins has written several screenplays, but "Hanging Millstone" is his current baby that is well into its pre-production stages.

In addition, Collins' education is that of earning a degree in business management from Ohio University. Collins was born in Selma, Alabama, and he grew up in Wooster, Ohio.

"Hanging Millstone's" first two castings were held in June of this year, with rehearsals soon to follow this final casting. Collins also has plans to begin shooting the film's trailer in the very near future.

Most of the talent that cast in the past, and more recently, is represented by Geri Muck with Protocol Models on the Gulf out of Naples. Some of the talent also learned of the casting when Collins spoke at a film/TV group called United Film & Television Artists, Inc. \(UFTA\).

Children, and seniors alike, turned out for this casting. Rehearsals are next on the agenda for "Hanging Millstone."
